

Mr.Robert's Extra Pair of Hands

PRESS RELEASE

For immediate release

Have you ever found yourself saying something like "I just don't have time to do everything I need to today"? or "Getting everything done during school holidays is difficult"? or "I wish someone else could go out and do this for me?"

If so a new 'on request' service that has been launched locally could be what you're looking for.

The company is called 'Mr.Robert's Extra Pair of Hands' and is available to householders throughout the Milton Keynes area.

Mr.Robert's plans to provide help with all those jobs that need to be done in and around the house or in the nearby shopping areas but for which there just isn't the time in the day.

Commenting on the new service, proprietor Chris Horsman said "we are aiming at two types of customers; The first are the 'jugglers' – these are people who have so much on their plate that they could do with the extra pair of hands to do jobs that take up valuable time and prevent them from doing more essential jobs. Jobs like waiting in for a tradesman such as an electrician or a man to mend the boiler. The benefit is that they don't have to take time off work to let them in and stay whilst the work is undertaken.

Jobs such as watering the plants, walking the dog or feeding the cats whilst they are away. Maybe odd jobs around the house or getting quotes for decorating or patios being built for example.

"The second type of customer is the elderly. Perhaps doing their weekly shopping or accompanying them to an appointment at the doctors, dentist, hospital or hairdressers. Maybe running errands or fetching things that otherwise require them to travel outside when the weather is not conducive to going out. He's also happy to help with the completion of claims forms and other administrative chores.

"Similarly, some customers might like to book a tele-care call to their elderly parents who live in MK, just to make sure they are ok and not in any need of an errand such as collecting a prescription from the chemists for example.

This type of business is often referred to as a 'Concierge Service' or it's like having your own personal assistant at the end of a 'phone, but unlike other similar companies, Mr. Robert's is an 'on-request' service. There is no joining fee, no annual subscription and no contract to sign. Simply a phone call to their office and arrangements can be discussed. They price their services for as short a time as 15 minutes or for those wanting a more regular service, periods of up to 20 hours a month.
